

DRESSES

He has a weak-will. She can get him to do whatever she wants.
That is a lovely dress.
I did all these things that I can't remember.
Do you like the dress?
Were you at the scene?
They will find out
If you keep repeating these accusations, it isn't going to make me guilty.
Why do you keep watching those stupid movies?
I want you to see my new dress.
You have found a way to transform yourself into something unrecognizable.
I think that it was an accident.
How can you possibly call that an accident? It was planned; every little bit of it was planned
I am where the world is all going around around me
AND I DON'T FEEL THE LEAST BIT DIZZY
I think he knows it's GOT TO BE BAD
try on the dress
It will make you look great!
We've been through all that before.
Come again!
I said that she doesn't like the dress.
I can make someone disappear. It's my job.
I'm not sure how I can help you.
You can tell me what happened to my life. It's almost as if everybody just put on a new suit of clothing, and, after that, nobody had any idea who I was.
That is exactly what is happening to me. Have you seen this movie? Do you know something?
Why would everyone go to such an effort to make something like this happen?
You're the only person who can help me.
Can you see their reality unravel?
You do look great in that dress.
Why are you so willing to help me?
If someone doesn't help you now, you're going to make a bigger mess for everyone else.
It's not me wearing the dress; it's more like the dress wearing me.
My hand is getting tired trying to cut the fabric.
Tired and trying times ahead.
It makes me smile. Just seeing myself in it makes me smile. Isn't there something in your life that makes you feel as excited.
I tell you what I'm going to do. I'm not going to rain on your parade.
This is not going to last long.

Where do we start?
We always think that we have a good place to start we peel back the layers and we are where we were before
I am not going back
I know
no one is no one wants to use the words as words was so we plot on this is marvelous
I suppose that there is another way to put this there always in who broke into your account and bought all those dresses?
I splurged
we are breakfast
I didn't think that you'd be down so late have I been replaced?
Only your dress has.
No, need to explain. Just as long as you pay for my dry cleaning
Have you done this kind of thing before?
Someone's been sleeping in my bed.
To get in the head of a monarch.
We just want to be free.
There is more to freedom than a thought.
If you really like what is going on here, why are you doing your utmost to mess it up.
It is going to cost you!
Someone is behind it all.
More than one somebody. Aren't you afraid of more than one somebody.
Not in the paralyzed way
do nothing way
watch and hope way.
There's a decoy.
How are you going to stop me when you don't even know who or what I am.
I am a bit of you and a bit of me.
That should teach you to break into people's apartments. Who are you working for?
Myself. I'm a free agent with the emphasis on FREE!
Is that proof enough for you? What more do you need to realize that something is up.
I've lost him. I've lost my bearings. And now this movie has become about cars.
I thought it was about dresses.
It was more about thread.
Or cutting the thread.
Which is remarkably different from cutting the cord.
We have tried to use costume changes before to change our lives. It doesn't ever work the way that we hope.
Do you find it hard taking complements?

How can I answer that?
With a question.
Like I did.
Are you hurt?
I hear sirens.
In here!
I'll make up for any problems that I caused you.
Everyone knows that
SHE is behind it
SHE is working for them
you only see what YOU want to see you might as well be working for them are you saying that I am working against myself that could be you'll never have a chance with her again, not the kind of chance that you just had what can I say to that have you been in the weight room
I have been carrying the weight of the world on my shoulders just let it go drop it drop the world
It wasn't a good idea for you to come here. I'm not who you think I am. I can never be the kind of person that you want me to be,
I'm only looking for someone who can read this. Tell me where the exit is.
You have to figure that out on your own.
But this is a game for two.
I powered down a long time ago.
It's your turn. You better take it quickly.
Do you still love her?
I will always lover?
That is your mistake. Sometimes, you have to let go.
You just put on people like you put on a new dress.
Doesn't it look great.
That isn't what I meant.
I don't care what you mean. I need to do what I need to do.
You're talking like a queen.
I am who I am.
But who else is going to believe you?
Your whole life is going to unravel.
I can feel myself dissolving.
I need money.

I need freedom.
How about a new dress?
I can't say good by forever.
It's enough forever for this.
You are going back.
I have to.
Tell me about the mission.
Who are you working for? Who are you working with?
YOU. You are pulling all the strings. Like the puppet master.
It's a mind control thing.
You're going to have to learn how to drive on the sidewalk.
Another silly movie thing. You are going to have to get there on foot. No cars.
You should have never trusted me.
I needed to trust someone.
I am hearing noises everywhere.
Photos
I've seen the photos.
You never were who they said you were.
What do you mean?
All your life, we've been feeding you scripts. That is how it is. How it's always been.
What are you saying?
You've been working for them which means you've been working for us which means that you've been working for yourself all along you have a way of forgetting things of misplacing things don't you know who you are that you've been pulling all the strings
I know none of that we knew that you'd say that you knew that you'd say that I can feel that things are breaking down things are breaking down
I had started to make sense of it all.
Go ahead! All that you have to do is work on your wardrobe. You will be OK. We will all be OK.
I'm not like you.
Of course, you're not. You're not even like yourself.
Tell me what you want to know.
OK
shoot
I'm not like you
I never have been.
I'm not like myself.
I never have been.

Get a new dress. It will make you love yourself again.
Do you love to play games?
I love everything and everyone.
Where does this come from?
From inside myself. Where should it come from?
How did things get this far?
I had no idea that they were any far.
I want to stay like this.
What is this? A dress wearer.
I am more of a maker. Stitch stitch.
Pulling together the threads.
What it holds it all together.
What keeps it all together.
I am here.
I am staying here
fair and square.
He came through with flying colors.
It's the fabric. In and out of the fabric.
I can end it all so quickly
It only takes a snap of the fingers to rearrange the whole story.
SNAP!
Don't move.
I never have.
I can barely come to!
You did everything I asked you. You did everything that they asked you. Then you wanted more. You let your life change on you. And you changed on yourself.
CHANGE!
I want some new fabric.
We are getting deeper into the fabric of your life.
This is very delicate fabric; you have to make sure that things don't rip.
Is this a special occasion?
It is what you make it. Haven't you made it enough ways before?
Your cab is here.
I think that I'll walk.
You're going to walk to the airport.
I have to get there some way, some how.
Take the stairs.
Drive.
I don't want to park.
Take an elevator.
I want to move slowly. There is too much to fool with.
Call me, and tell me how things are going.
They are going as well as the weather.
It's not the weather. It's the clothes.
SNAP!

Did something break. Or did something come together.
I have been planning this ceremony for a long time.
I thought of something more personal.
This is is something that you really care about is something that you really wonder about have planned this for a long time
I am alone on the streets
I am just trying to go it alone go it along
I don't have the cash for any of this.
Bandages won't up. You'll need a helmet.
I'll need padding.
We were on top of the world.
Can you measure the world that way?
You can do pretty well what you please.
What pleases you?
I thought that we had planned for all the unforeseen contingencies.
We messed up again.
Nothing has moved an inch.
Bring it all back. None of it seemed to work.
Are you OK?
They've told me all kinds of things. Frightening things about myself.
It's like a bad suit of clothes. All that you have to do is take it off. Or put it back on.
Do you have the dress?
The dress is not ready. Wear whatever you have!
I don't have the right dress for the season.
It's not about matching or fitting in, just being in.
What if I don't get in?
Have your own party. You must have enough costumes to go around. Enough for everyone.
I need to work fast.
Do whatever you have to do.
I can use my hands. Bunch it all up. Toss it in the air.
Like magic watch it fly. Whatever you want, you can have.
Let my hands be your dress.
We've tried that before.
Do you have a partner?
I have a business partner.
Does he have the money?
We all have the money.
The door is locked. No one is getting in or out.
I have the key.

It's electronic. Your key is not going to work.
I am wearing a magic dress. I can pass through the walls.
When was the last time that you were in the room?
In the last five days.
I am there now.
Get out of the room. Get out of the house.
Get out of the house.
I am allergic to the fabric.
Did someone pull the fire alarm.
I need to get out of here before anything worse happens.
What could that be?
Someone could figure out who you really are.
Someone could figure out where I bought this dress.
I didn't think that you bought it. I thought that you made it.
Same thing.
Have you been telling people that you made it?
It's not as if it's going to walk out of here on its own.
I feel as if every moment of the day I should be doing something great.
You are. You're watching the crystal lattice of time.
I mean something for someone else.
They are watching your crystal lattice of time.
Is it contagious?
Is buying fever?
I'm not sure what I am supposed to like. What I am supposed to want.
Want what everyone else wants.
This is a hard pill to swallow.
Sugar coat it.
This is the era of sugar-coating.
This is the era of sugar-coating of sugar-coating meaning no sugar-coating at all that is how you get one over on us
the winner gets the crown
the loser gets the dress
I get to keep the dress.
I only want my medicine meaning
no sugar
no coating.
Around the corner, you will find the answer.
Swimming time!
The water always is too cold.
I want to get out of this place. I want to go to a place that has warm weather all the time.
Dream on!
I can do it if I choose.
You can't spend your whole life in a hotel.

I feel as I'm bouncing up and down.
Whose idea was this?
I am trying to be as nice as possible.
We can take out the brain,
and replace it with cotton candy.
Nice switch, but why?
Only sweet thoughts.
All that I can think about are good thoughts.
I am coming back in the night.
There are no more nights for us. I'll take the daytime instead. I am afraid of ghosts.
The dress seems to have a life of its own.
It floats in the air.
Like a souffle.
Who is paying for this?
The company.
I didn't know that you were traveling on an employee credit card.
They just handed me a bunch of money and said go for it.
What did you go for?
Something pretty crazy.
That dress is a real confection.
What about the body that goes along with it.
Standing on your own two feet now?
Who are you really talking to?
Who changed the sheets?
I feel as if we are going back in time.
In fact, we are moving ahead. Way ahead. We are only going back in timing.
What does that supposed to mean?
Free food!
I'm only looking for someone to hang around with until my real friends show up.
I'll hang out with you. Just tell me what I should say.
Here's a list of my best attributes.
You wear that dress so well.
Taffeta or lace,
ribbons or buttons.
What do you want to talk about.?
There are just so many things filling up that pretty little head of yours.
Whatever you do, try not to move. Otherwise, you'll feel the pins.
My life is becoming a series of pin pricks.
This is our life.
Stop thinking that you have some kind of privilege to tell my story.
You did retain me.
Only a moment of weakness. We all have them. Like a pint of chocolate ice cream.,
Or a song that is about as empty as cotton candy.
How do you weave cotton candy?

I feel as if I am being woven by this dress.
I have my own ideas.
We are all being threaded together.
Give me this scissors.
I need to cut at an angle.
I recognize you.
I feel as if I am being worn by this dress.
I feel as if I am being worn.
Worn down by the fabric of time.
What does that mean?
Where are we moving?
I need to get out of here.
Dress to egress.
The only way to leave is through the imagination.
I am pulling it together.
Those little brats think that they can just take our lives and make some kind of spectacle of them.
I need to get back to you on that.
Do that!
Are you clean?
I don't even remember getting excited.
You can't get if you don't get excited.
That is how it goes.
It's too early to even head down there.
I am chilly.
Let's watch it on TV.
Our lives on TV. Did we even given them permission?
Back and forth our permission.
The only way to leave is to get someone to lead us out.
What is wrong?
Do you have any idea where I am?
Where do I put the gas?
Where do I put myself, or take myself out?
I WANT TO GO FAST!
What is his name?
THE-ONE-IN-THE-WAY
Hey guy, please move.
Don't you know my name?
We don't want to know.
Get a beer for both of us.
You can't make up with me that easily. You made me cry. I only want what's better for everyone. To revitalize the city. Otherwise, why bother.
I am trying to see my story in their story. And their story in yours. Does that make sense?
That makes sense,
but the story makes no sense.
I am not living in a hotel room.

From nonsense to funsense.
How does that happen?
Make a checklist. Let the sun change your life.
I have tried all the remedies. Nothing really helps.
I forgot to clean the kitchen after cooking.
DRESS TO EGRESS.
I do love the dress.
It is lovely.
I am going away for a long time. I thought that it was a ruse. But it is my life. I have to go.
Don't
disappear on me again.
What do I need from you?
To smoke the peace pipe.
To bury the hatchet.
To give me words.
I need you to do what I say. I need you to sing my song.
This is too far gone.
Walk away while you still can. Don't look back. You will become attached.
I need to buy the dress!
Get it online. Just get out of here while you are still able.
You are asking too much of me.
I feel as if I am asking too much of everyone.
Why won't you let me go?
I will. You want everyone to carry an image of you inside them.
Sainthood. Prayers.
Repeat these words. Rearrange your soul. You will be healed.
I don't feel as if I can be helped.
You can't.
Eat the cookie. Drink the milk. Dance the dance.
DON'T FORGET: PUT ON THE DRESS!
History is being made!
Where is my jacket?
Did you happen to look at the weather?
Do you have any idea where we are going?
We are going to the ends of the earth.
This is our lives.
Yours maybe. I can go. I have other friends.
Around the around there is another around.
Let me just go. I'll be back.
You're not leaving until we solve everything.
Someone has to alter the dress.
We all have lives!
It is too tight.
This one is just right.

Look what you did. You ripped it.
I made this for you. Cooked it in the oven.
I am allergic to it.
I think that I am allergic to you.
There are natural rhythms, natural chemistries.
I made a mistake. Are you going to do something to me because of it?
What are you going to do to yourself?
I am going to treat myself. I need a new dress.
What are you going to do for yourself?
What
are you going to do?
I'm sorry for everything that happened. What more can I say?
At least speak the words!
I will wear the words.
