

FREEDOM

he just replaced me with someone else he'd gotten away with that kind of thing many times before seeping in my pleasure

what I get away with all the time do you see the skin what turns me on this is my freedom
I can't get to you
can't do anything else I am waiting for it

you do this sort of thing all the time don't you

she's a spy
you can't trust her
what's a spy
lives fast dies young
has a beautiful corpse

you've been extracted what can that mean

what can you do anyhow

SAID THE WORDS

could be seen

you had the chance to cross over to speak in tongues the cat got your tongue we are all children of the West where we order loaves of bread that never seem to arrive

I need to eat
you need to wait what am I waiting for

I've been waiting to say that

I was out of gas
you brought me gas
I was out of my mind
you brought me ideas I was out for lunch
you brought me dinner

are you OK
I've been better

I've got you locked on you can't make a move without me knowing where you are going how do you do that

I have a feeling that you've been here before you know the terrain like that back of your hand right now I am going so fast that I can't look at the back of my hand

well
take a peek

I am free is this what free is the body just takes over on its own now you've got to land this thing sometime

I just get so excited I can get back to where I want to be

after a while
means just going along saying this is what I choose this is my only way really to get up in the sky it has to look as if you are driving this thing who is on it

we are on it

assume for the moment that no one is driving this thing that you are soaring in space admiring each other in the sun you are heading down really going down

I am up to high to fall I just need to coast let the wind take me where it may

there is no
WIND
that fast

I need a tornado to lift me up and that is how the body gets tossed in the air currents you have to know what I am talking about are you experienced

I am experienced for you

there is someone somewhere who knows that you are who did this to you
the wind
no one is to blame

can you get up
and leave this place

I have things
my things
I have to get my things my jewelry
my rings
my clothes
all the things that make me me you just have to get out of here because when he comes back he is going to do a number on you they're watching us on this score I don't think that I can get in and out with a clean one everybody is waiting waiting on a miracle

after a few weeks
it won't be a miracle not much they can just pull out their credit cards and buy one in the store wanting it now is the whole trick when you can't have it when everyone else

wants it
and they can't have it
and
by a miracle
you put your hands on it you can't touch it this is more like a state of mind do you feel as if history has stopped is that how you feel an announcement without anyone to here my words or an announcement that everyone awaits your words

here comes a miracle is that what I need to say to get everyone to gather 'round this is a miracle

I was lied to
by the wind
by the words
not by anyone in particular in thought and word word and deed

so do you suffer in silence no
I hurt
and I wait for a miracle

you said
miracles for sale how much do I have to pay pay with my heart
pay with my soul
pay with myself

how much
one soul for two

you have an extra
more than enough when I was younger that is all I did I gathered souls in a basket I had more than enough to spare when they said
he's got soul
she's got soul
I had soul
soul to spare
and now
I can do pretty much what I want tell people one thing get them to believe another it makes no difference no strings attached
strings are your thing
his thing
his thing
can you walk away

I don't want to but could you want to could you ever want to
is your regret ever great enough to dissuade you before things get too deep do the signs ever tell you WALK AWAY

I feel things
deep things
and I am able to go along with my feelings every time could you be more free than that you could create the feelings to go along with where you want to go even if it didn't feel right at the time

I am falling what are you going to do about that I am going to catch you what if I am coming down so fast that there isn't a thing that you could do to break my fall what could you do about that

I would use a net
there are no nets
I am walking on air without a net
and when I come down
it is down for good

it is better to walk on the ground for a very long time than to walk in the air for a little while sounds like a challenge

it is better for a long time to walk on the air
than to walk on the water for a very short time I am getting wet
you know the feeling to go out so far that you can't get back than you get used to where you are

I don't ask those kind of questions anymore it's one thing to chart the constellations quite another to get lost in the stars whatever you do don't ruin it for me

how could I
how could I ruin it if it wasn't ruined somewhat already all that I do is repeat your words stick your slogans on empty walls I am the revolution
are you afraid of those words we are all afraid and they are shooting at us you know what I am doing I am doing you a big favor I can get you out of here but you need to change your form you need to get rid of things

I am
but I still need things to sustain me the memories
my memories
are based on this order of things

I am never going to finish never going to get you out of the labyrinth the labyrinth is entirely your invention to keep me trapped in myself to prevent me from thinking differently to stop me from being FREE

you create your own traps just live
breathe the air
be free
just live

it is sunny outside walk outside
and
enjoy the day

I have things to get done so many things are happening to me I awake one day and everything has gone green do you know what that means this is all happening so quickly is there nothing that I can do this is what they call royalty they live in glass houses and the never throw stones

don't complain you knew this was coming a time where you could watch it all behind glass
but not do a thing about it you can join or you can sit on the sidelines and complain go on wonder boy

just do it

I want to venture out and make my own way in the world when so far out is so far in you and me
you have just been going along hiccup
I need to take something so that I can accept less freedom I can't be free to do something about it need to catch up

keep my options open this was a good day
all the things for sale I bought a miracle
and some freedom
now I need to unload

one or the other

you don't understand this is how he became free by locking himself inside by not letting anything affect him that he didn't want as an effect more than that you do not have to do this you do not have to live like this you do not have to

I know
how far
I can go
and as it goes I don't think that I can take it anymore I don't think so you could scream at the top of your lungs I just don't think that anyone would hear me the key is hidden underneath time
THAT SOUNDS VERY IMPORTANT
no
literally
there is a key hidden underneath the alarm clock that sounds silly you have to get in before you can use the key silly
it's not for that door
it's for the treasure

now
you have to make money

I've accepted that no one
is going to make me lunch do you know how much

I am paying
for your freedom
how much

someone has to believe where were you hiding when I needed you I wasn't hiding

I was afraid

I was escaping

why do you feel that you are always escaping something or somebody because I want to be really free

it will be better in the morning the ghosts will have left the house and you will finally be free do more

be more buy today

he could see things like no one else could he could be things and then he just escaped do you have any idea how far he got she does she is behind it all

he is behind her
and she is behind him
it's all very twisted

that is how you get free you get untwisted to get twisted again
that is how
