

SO LONG TO THE SOLAR ECLIPSE

It will be another seventy years until we see one of those again.

The lunar ECLIPSE is much more common.
And you can look directly at it without risk of eye damage or
"I" damage or was that damaged before the purchase and the speakers in the back aren't working right "Wait.

Are we talking about a car or an event of astronomy?"

I guess there's no difference.

It's the car in the moon and the man in the car or the ECLIPSE of the man or the man in the eclipse Or the beginning of the world and the end as we know it Like an ends to a mean Or I don't know what you mean And I am not saying this to be mean or meaningful

How many stars does it take to screw in a lightbulb?
One to turn on the constellation And one to turn you on And both to be screwed by you.

Did you like my joke or am I turning you off.

"Is that a question I am supposed to answer?"

if you can't be seen

And when I felt it all drip out I flushed it down to the sewers

that of me of you that hesitant dance

"You don't have to go anywhere until I leave for work. And I am not accepting her if she is not expecting. And it had nothing except everything to do with obligation."

"Obligation is the same word as love" and love is the same obligation as self-interest but what do I know -- I can't see past the moment when you are moving in and out of me in rhythm

"I'll never do that again.
Now it's time for me to act maturely."

I am so glad that you explained that to me.
Now I can find the balance between acids and basic desire and not be overcome except to come

Maybe
I could order take out for you with fatal ingredients replace fate with food replace faith with mood

Oops
but I can't pay for that when I am not there Here -- let me pay for that after I burn all the money

I'm not waiting with you anymore. Early to bed and love in disguise "There's no waiting only sedating.
And we're not dating -- try to remember that.
When you need me I'll be here unless I don't want to be."

seeing it all in the crystal ball of Rose -- the clairvoyant this psychic hotline says:

All that you ever wanted CAN be yours

But in the grips of another I am pulled away in front of you You turn to see the disappearing act before the curtain falls when I am threatened walking to my car,

I fight to make friends with my attacker.

I make love to my killer or to the con man or to your roommate or to my soulmate

It's all the same gesture after awhile when all we're doing is counting days until this is over We've run out of fingers and toes and you're overwhelmed and I'm over you and all we are doing is saying the same thing over and over

I'M SAYING IT AGAIN

I'm not fond of end games or games of winning or games of losing

There's no bluffing here but there is getting buff -- once I get motivated with my personal trainer without you presence near and then things got more real and I swallowed it after you got ahead and got some head oh, how I love your pussy It's heads or tails

And we've lost it all in one toss of the coin

It was suppose to be a wish not a damnation I won't touch the dirty hand with my hand after what we've done It's going to take more than a shower to get rid of the smell

The Army finally surrendered when they realized they weren't getting anywhere and the ticking of the time bomb was the music of the ages

"Giving you the watch was just a romantic device I thought you might notice that I was trying to get us out of time."
Time is a thing that man has created -- like good and evil.
But you only want to tell me about Greek myths in the past and in the future I'll stop buying you presents that are equivalent to curses.

The universes continues to laugh at our follies

And somehow how our orbits collided and that made a pretty big mess of it all.

Is this the sort of destiny you believe in?
The kind where I guess all the right songs only to find out later that we were listening to someone else's compilation and I have thrown every book in the library and only one reached its destination but you shut your eyes again and the dreams between us are lost between us

There is only one way to finish what you've started.

We are all in this together -- by ourselves

Give up and Go away!

The clown says it floats down there but you're not watching...
